

Please donate to our fighting fund against the fascist BNP

Recent elections have seen the fascist British National Party gain its first two seats in the European parliament. BNP candidate Andrew Brons, a former stalwart of the National Front and a lifelong Nazi, took the final MEP place in the Yorkshire & the Humber region. BNP leader Nick Griffin, a convicted Holocaust denier, narrowly took the final MEP place in the North West of England.

This is the most significant electoral success to date for a Nazi party in Britain and marks a turning point in this country's politics. It threatens to normalise the presence of the BNP on the political scene in a manner similar to that of Jean-Marie Le Pen's Front National in France. The BNP will use its seats to garner respectability and to access millions of pounds in public funding. It will use those funds and that respectability to build its organisation and whip up race hatred on the streets of Britain.

We cannot allow this to happen. We urgently need to mobilise the largest possible mass movement across every walk of life to stop the fascist BNP and to drive the organisation out of the political mainstream. This week alone Unite Against Fascism organised a series of protests against the fascist BNP in Manchester, Liverpool, Sheffield, Preston, Leeds and York. Our activists also successfully disrupted a press conference planned by Nick Griffin outside the Houses of Parliament. We need your help now to ensure we can continue to organise protests, rallies, conferences and direct action against the Nazis.

We need funds to pay for leaflets, placards and anti-BNP literature. We want to build anti-BNP activity on a mass scale. We need donations now to make this happen.

- * £10 can pay for 100 anti-BNP leaflets
- * £20 can buy material for an anti-BNP campaign stall
- * £50 can pay for 2,000 leaflets in a target region such as the North West
- * £100 can pay for an anti-BNP advert in the local press
- * £500 can pay for an anti-BNP ad van to tour a city such as Leeds for a day
