Time to stand up to the fascist BNP

The election of two members of the fascist British National Party (BNP) to the European parliament marks a turning point in British politics. The BNP will use this to push their bigotry in the media and whip up race hatred on our streets. We cannot allow this to happen.

We have to challenge their lies about immigrants and Muslims, reject their attempts to pose as a legitimate political voice, and expose their leaders as hardened racists and Nazis. As the recent protests against the BNP outside Parliament and in Manchester have shown, there is the mood to defeat the Nazis

We need to mobilise the largest possible mass movement against the BNP fascists. Just as in the 1930s, when people rose up against Oswald Mosley's Blackshirts, and in the 1970s when the Anti Nazi League defeated the National Front, we must unite to defeat the fascists today.
